Text Formatting in LaTeX

Vikram Mehra

November 11, 2026

1 Introduction

LaTeX provides several commands to format text in a professional and consistent manner.

2 Text Styles

2.1 Basic Formatting

This is normal text.

This text is bold.

This text is italic.

This text is underlined.

`This text uses a typewriter font.`

This text uses small capital letters.

This text is emphasized.

2.2 Font Sizes

The following commands demonstrate different font sizes.

Tiny text

Script size text

Footnote size text

Small text

Normal size text

Large text

Larger text

Very large text

Huge text
Largest standard text

3 Text Alignment

3.1 Left Alignment

This paragraph is aligned to the left.

3.2 Center Alignment

This paragraph is centered.

3.3 Right Alignment

This paragraph is aligned to the right.

4 Lists

4.1 Bulleted List

- LaTeX is useful for academic writing.
- It supports mathematical expressions.
- It creates structured documents.

4.2 Numbered List

1. Create a LaTeX source file.
2. Write the document content.
3. Compile the source file.
4. View the generated PDF.

4.3 Description List

LaTeX A document preparation system.

PDF Portable Document Format.

Compiler A tool that processes LaTeX source code.

5 Special Characters

Some characters have special meanings in LaTeX. To display them, use escape commands.

Percent: %
Dollar: $
Ampersand: &
Hash: #
Underscore: _

6 Conclusion

This program demonstrates common text formatting, font size, alignment, list, and special character commands.